My heartfelt sympathies on the loss of Josh..aka "George Jones" I always enjoyed listening to him sing. He was my right hand man with the first street dance in St. Paul and I will always remember how he sang for the hutterites in the meat cooler at 4 am when we had to go pick up the pig for the Wild Pink Yonder Cancer fundraiser..he always had a smile on his face, shared positive encouraging words and I will cherish the friendship we had. May his spirit live on in your hearts and memories..I know he will in mine.
