Tribute from Karen and Harvey Krawchuk

Relation: Friend and Accountant

I've known Dennis and Maryann since the late 1980's when I first started doing their taxes. Harv would run into them at auction sales all the time. Every year I looked forward to our meeting to hear their stories about their farming and personal life. They always came in together and were full of wisdom, advice and humorous stories. From what I've seen, they more or less did everything together. They had such a strong marriage and friendship. It's so tragic that the two of them could not enjoy their golden years together - especially enjoying in the birth of their first grand child. Harv and I will miss hearing Dennis' booming voice. We send our deepest condolences to Maryann, Brian and the family.
