Janine, Dalene, Chris and Families,

We offer our deep condolences to you all in the passing of Don. We have been friends for many years and shared trips, community events, milestone celebrations and visits. It is so hard to believe he is gone and he will be truly missed. So many great memories we will cherish.

Garry, Anne, Sandra and Kevin Himschoot

Tribute from Herb & Edith Krekoski

Relation: Friend

Our sympathy to Janine and family. Don was a wonderful person who will be remembered for his friendliness, his gentleness, and his willingness to make time to talk with all. Herb has especially fond memories of the times Don came for a haircut. In fact, Don was his last customer when he quit barbering in the spring of 2012. May you find solace in your memories of a life together.

Tribute from Ed Sosnowski

Relation: Student of long ago

It is with sadness that I have learned of Don's passing. He was student of mine when was in grade eight and have always remembered him as a most bright, jovial and friendly person. Until recently I had the pleasures of meeting him again and his friendliness, and happiness was still a joy. I will always remember him as one of the nicest people I have come to know. He know he will truly be missed.

Tribute from Ray Makowecki
