Thinking of your Mom makes me Smile! So many memories, being a kid and visiting the farm. She made the best mashed potatoes. Growing up camping at Moose Lake with Mom and Dad. The old post office in Mallaig. All three sisters playing cards and drinking potato Champagne. Her expressions and always was so particular that she looked her best. She will be missed but happy she will be reunited with Uncle Eduardo and rest of her family! God Bless her!

We will always treasure the visits I had with all of you, (especially the older ones among you) in our childhood years as well as the visits we shared as adults. Our thoughts and prayers have been with you as you say goodbye to someone so dear to you! I'm sorry that we were unable to join you in person for the funeral but thank you to you and Grace Gardens for making it possible for me to join you in prayer via livestream this morning. I know that you all have tons of memories of special times with your mom, grandmere that will bring you much comfort and joy in the days and years to come.
