Tribute from Dennis & Fern Garneau

Relation: brother-in-law

So much to be said about his life. He knew a lot of stuff, could fix anything & never saw him lose his temper, calm & logical, so proud of his family. He loved fishing & hunting. As our oldest brother-in-law, he takes with him much history. Our condolences to the family, especially Maureen & Bob, who took very good care of him & were involved in his life. Also, Lyndon, who took him fishing and was with him when he could. Many good memories. Our deepest condolences.

Tribute from Gail Zaparniuk

Relation: Family

Sending my sincerest condolences. I most appreciated his devotion to his family, as well as his kind and gentle nature. His late wife, Olga, was my Baba's niece - my father's cousin. To me, he was always 'Uncle Henry.' A man who I respected and admired. ' - Memory Eternal.
May we all find comfort in the memories of a life well lived.

Tribute from Noreen D. Romano

Relation: sister-in-law

Henry had a smile and a kind word for everybody and the patience of Job. He was like a big brother to Olga's siblings and we learned many things from him. He taught me how to light a campfire. He taught me how to fish from a boat in the summer and how to fish through the ice in the winter. He was a self-taught mechanic and could fix any car that needed fixing, He provided well for his family.

Len and I extend our deepest sympathy to all of Henry's children and to all of his closest family and friends.
