Joan was very proud of each and every one of you. Family meant everything to her and she always spoke very highly of each and every one of you. There is no doubt that she will be missed. Aunty Joan always saw the good, the positive and the bright side of everything and everyone. Her caring and compassionate nature are irreplaceable. May all the memories keep her close to your heart and bring you comfort. It was a blessing and a privilege to have had her in our lives and we share in your sadness and your loss.
