No more berry picking, no more crib days where uncle tells you that you're getting too heavy to carry, no more lunches in the fields. I will always remember you walking into the house when Bernie, Mom and Dad passed away. You had enough food for a small army, and you said "this is my flowers". How we appreciated that. I will miss you my cousin, and will treasure the memories that we have. Rest in Peace. To Leonie's family, hugs, and prayers for peace in your hearts. Love you all
