Tribute from Elaine Lubchenko

Relation: Friend

Our condolences, Tim, to you and your family of the passing of Marilee. Growing up, our families lived across the alley from each other. We spent much time at each other's home. Marilee's life will be cherished with many good memories.

Tribute from Brenda

Relation: Friend

The time that we spent together on Covington rise, will be cherished forever. The good times, and the challenges that we shared were lessons well learned for us young moms. We learned some harsh lessons together, cried and laughed together. The fun, and the laughter throughout the years still surface in my mind from time to time. Marilee's strength from day one of her journey is the most admirable life lesson she taught me or anybody who knew her. Marilee was a pillar of strength who had a lot to offer. May she now rest free from pain.

I am truly sorry for your loss.
