Tribute from Ella Clarke

Relation: Royal Alex h-I Angio RN/colleague

It's really hard to say goodbye for good, my friend!!!

Every time I whistle along with the 60s,70s, and 80s music at work, I'll be thinking of you but also dearly miss your part too!!!

Your cheerful support on really tough days, seeing the positive in the negative, not being afraid to stand up for us, and often brightening our days, will remain a part of the story at our workplace that could never be erased, by anyone.

I wish you and your family had a lot more of the camping trips you were thinking of, and I am crushed that we are losing you so so very early, but I will think of you, somewhere out there among the stars, whistling away!!!

Tribute from Carmen Glossop

Relation: school friend

Matthew and I went to school together from grade 1 on. He was my best friend in grades 3 & 4. We rode bikes together, played at the park, hung out at each other's houses after school, and played games. He was always friendly to everyone. He really was a great guy. My deepest sympathies to his wife, children and whole family. Thank you for sharing his memorial video at then end of the funeral. He will be greatly missed! RIP my friend!

---

Tribute from Janice Voltner

Relation: Friend

I've always believed that there are angels disguised as people who walk amongst us. This is true of Mathew. His calmness, his compassion, his contagious positive outlook, his ability to make you feel better about yourself, and above all else is endless commitment and love to Cheryl and his boys are just some of the outstanding features of Mathew. He is my brother Jason's best friend and a soul brother to him. His spirit will forever live on in those who love him the most.

---

Tribute from Brooke Kleefstra

I will deeply miss Matthew's warm smile and welcoming personality at The Royal Alex. He brought a bright light everywhere he went. My heartfelt condolences to his family.
