Zelpha, words cannot describe how sorry we are. Together, you have raised an incredibly beautiful family, full of love for each other and for friends. The love you have given my family will carry you through your grief, and know we reciprocate that love to you all. Amanda and Melissa, you have always shown love for my kids, actually all kids... you have helped watch my kids, you helped teach my kids how to read and do math. Your love for others is the greatest gift your dad and mom could give you.

Henry and Emily, Darlene and Denis, Christine and Brent, Terry and Ruth and families: our love and condolences go out to you. We hope these few words can help you through your pain.

Tribute from Ken and Darlene Osepchuk

Relation: Friends

We are so sorry for your loss. There will be many difficult days ahead but remember your friends are here to help. My favourite memory of Michael is him after a good curling game. He is sitting with his team having a well deserved volka and coke. Amanda or Melissa make their way to sit on his lap knowing full well that he would tickle them or bug them in some other way until they were laughing uncontrollably. They loved it. He will be missed. Our thoughts are with you all.
