It was a shock to me to learn of Mitch's passing. My memories go way back to our early hockey days in St. Paul and in Chilliwack, BC. Oh, the great times and the laughs we shared over the years. Mitch was a tough guy, blended with hockey finesse - if you needed to get the puck out of the corner in the opponents end, send in Mitch - you can guess who always came out with the puck - yes, it was Mitch - wearing the biggest smile from a hockey battle won. Mitch was very special to many people and can never ever be forgotten. What a blessing to have known him. Classy guy in every way. I am praying for everyone in Mitch's family. You have my deepest sympathies.
