Uncle Oliver will be missed by all, I remember the days when dad & mom and us kids would travel to Elk Point and we would stay with Uncle Oliver & Auntie Angie kids Charles Roxanne, Virginia, Lisa, the music would fill the air with Uncle & Auntie playing music instruments, well one being the guitar. We always had a blast staying up way pass out bedtime, this memories I will always remember. Take care.

Tribute from Lorraine Lawton

Relation: Mr Labine was mom's friend

I am thankful for the friendship Mr Labine extended to my mom when they were neighbours at Sunnyside. Mom does not like pears and Mr Labine would trade bananas for pears. Just the passing of a fruit made mom's day.

Tribute from Marilyn and Donna

Relation: We met him once at the hospital .

My mom and I met him once . We feel very blessed to have met Oliver. His son Charles has shared many memories with us about his mom and dad. Charles spoke of him very highly. Just remember we will see our loved ones again..
