Tribute from RUDY PARENTEAU

Relation: Friends.

Condolences to all of the family. Terry was always a friendly man and big-hearted when we spoke we always had a laugh or two, and we often spoke of music or cars.

Tribute from Rhonda Jackson

Relation: Musician Friend

My sincere condolences and prayers to the Cardinal family. Terry was my mentor in music and taught me so many minor chords and variations (keyboard and guitar). Every time I couldn't figure a note or chord, I'd call him and he'd pick it up in an instant, playing it over the phone. He was certainly one of the truest and dearest friend of mine and probably one of the most talented musicians I've had the opportunity to sing and play with. In Saskatchewan, we were called The Saddle Lake Band making our debut at gospel fests where people never even heard of us. (Terry, Rhoda and myself). Good times, good music and certainly with a good friend. I will miss you and so will many others. Your dedication, commitment and love for music and your kindness towards people in general will forever be remembered my friend.

Chief Cardinal's dedication to the people of Saddle Lake Cree Nation was evident in everything he said and did. His example of leadership and commitment to his Nation shall live on.
